2. ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS

Candidates seeking admission to the Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) Programme of the University of Delhi should meet either of the following eligibility criteria for being considered for admission to the course through the Entrance Test.

I. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA (for graduates)

Bachelor's degree or any other qualification recognised equivalent thereto from a recognised university with a minimum of :

50% marks in aggregate in the 10+2+3 or 11+2+2 pattern, or with a minimum of 55% marks in aggregate in the 10+2+2 or 11+3 pattern

and

50% marks in aggregate at the bachelor's degree level in each of the two subjects from out of the ones indicated in List I (see page 5), in which the candidate will take the Entrance Test.

II. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA (for post-graduates)

(a) Master's degree or any other qualification recognised equivalent thereto from a recognised university, in any of the subject options indicated in List I or List II given (see page 5) with a minimum of 50 % marks in aggregate

and

Having studied at least one subject at the bachelor's degree level other than the one in the post-graduation and also indicated in List-I. In this subject also, the candidate must have secure at least 50% marks in aggregate in that subject. The Entrance Test will be taken in this subject along with the subject of the Masters degree.

OR

(b) Masters degree or any other qualification recognised equivalent thereto from a recognised university in any subject with a minimum of 50 % marks in aggregate

and

Having studied at least two subjects at the bachelor's degree level, from the ones indicated in List I, with a minimum of 50% marks in aggregate in each of these two subjects, in which the candidate will take the Entrance Test.

Note:

- i. Candidates who have appeared in the final year examination of any of the above mentioned degrees and whose results are awaited may also apply. They, however, would be required to produce a copy of their admit card of the qualifying examination attested by a competent authority as evidence of having taken the qualifying exam, at the time of submitting the Application Form. Such candidates will be required to submit the result of their qualifying examination to the concerned institution into which they may be provisionally enrolled, within ten days of its declaration, and in no case later than a specific date in August 2011 as declared by the University of Delhi.
- ii. Rounding off of fractions in deciding the eligibility percentage is not allowed.
- iii. For relaxation in eligibility conditions for the reserved categories refer to pages 12-14 of the Prospectus.

Lists I & II referred to in the above mentioned eligibility conditions are also to help select the subject options for the Entrance Test. Every candidate has to opt for two different subjects for the Entrance Test. The choice of the subjects will determine the choice of 'stream' (Table II) and the 'school teaching subjects' (Refer to page 15). The lists are as follows:

List - I

5. METHOD OF SELECTION

About the Entrance Test

All candidates are required to appear in the Entrance Test. It consists of two parts and can be taken in either English or Hindi.

Part A comprises of the two subjects chosen by the candidate for the Entrance Test. This part will assess, upto graduation level, the content knowledge and analytical abilities in the concerned subject(s).

Part B of the test is common for all candidates. It consists of the following two sections:

Reasoning and General Awareness

This section would include areas to assess abilities such as reasoning (mathematical, inductive & deductive), identifying and understanding the relationship among various elements, decision making, data analysis, interpretation etc. This section will also assess the awareness and knowledge of the candidate in the fields of education, national and international affairs, etc.

Language Comprehension

This section aims at assessing the candidates' language comprehension skills, either in English or in Hindi, as per their choice.

Table – III : Structure of the Entrance Test

Section	Content	Type	Marks
A (i)	Subject - I	Multiple Choice	40
(ii)	Subject - II	Multiple Choice	40
B (i)	Reasoning and General Awareness	Multiple Choice	50
(ii)	Language Comprehension	Multiple Choice	20

For example: if your answer to question no. X is given at option 'b', then darken in the following way:

17. Mark your responses carefully. Two or more responses for a question will be considered as an incorrect answer. For every three incorrect responses, you will lose one mark.
18. Responses have to be recorded on the OMR answer sheet, using black or blue ball point pen only. Use of pencil, white fluid, or cutting or erasing on the answer sheet will make your response invalid.
19. Hand over your answer sheet to your invigilator before you leave your room.
20. A candidate with visual disability shall be provided with a writer by the Institution and his / her exam will be conducted at the CIE Centre only.

Procedure for Selection

Candidates will be selected on the basis of their performance in the Entrance Test depending on their rank in the merit list of their respective stream. A list of candidates selected will be prepared strictly in order of merit, based on their performance in the Entrance Test and their preference of institutions. In case of a tie, the candidate older in age shall rank higher. The list will be prepared for the respective institutions separately, strictly according to merit.

The selected candidates have to complete the admission related formalities within the stipulated period of time. Failure to do this, the offer will be withdrawn and the seat will be allotted to candidates next in the merit list. Their selection will stand automatically cancelled without any further notice.

Once allocated, no request for change of institution shall be considered.

*Candidates whose names appear in the merit list, but whose results of the qualifying examination have not been declared, will be permitted to provisionally attend classes, but will be entitled to admission only if they obtain the requisite percentage of marks in the qualifying examination (as specified under the eligibility conditions), not later than a date in August 2011 as specified by the university. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of the provisional enrolment. Any improvement in the percentage of marks obtained due to revaluation, will not give them any right to admission later on. Such candidates will have to compete again, if they seek admission in future, since the merit list pertains to the current year of admission only.

Note: Such candidates are required to provide a copy of their Admit Card (with date) as evidence of having taken their qualifying examination, attested by a competent authority.

(d) Persons with Disabilities (PwD)

- (i) As per University of Delhi Rules 3% of the seats are reserved for persons with disabilities (which include Visually Disabled (VD) and Other than Visually Disabled (OVD) candidates). These candidates will also be allowed a concession of 5% marks in the minimum eligibility requirements.

(II) Procedure for admission of physically disabled students

The physically disabled candidates will be registered by the Faculty/Department in the first instance and thereafter their applications will be forwarded to the C.M.O., W.U.S. Health Centre (Main Campus) indicating the nature of work involved in pursuing the course. The candidates will have to present themselves physically before the medical board on the date specified. Information to this regard will be displayed on the notice board of the Department of Education (CIE) at appropriate time.

The Medical Board after examining the candidate concerned would send information about each candidate to the following effect:

- (i) Whether the candidate is fit to pursue the course of study in light of the information supplied by the Faculty/Department.
- (ii) if the Board is of the opinion that the candidate can pursue the course, the board will recommend the case taking into account the extent of handicap (as per University rules).
- (iii) The Dean of Faculty/Head of the Department/Principal of the College would keep the required number of seats vacant in the course concerned till the recommendations of the Medical Board are received by them and their cases decided thereafter by placing them in the merit list at the appropriate places.
- (iv) As per the guidelines of the Medical Board in Delhi University for physically and mentally challenged candidates the disability certificate should be issued by the competent authority in the format as per the Govt. of India guidelines.

Note: For category (a) the transfer of seats will be done mutually. In case of non-availability of suitable candidates for seats in category (b) mentioned above, the vacancies will be treated as general category and will be filled up accordingly.

(e) Education Subject: (Edu)

Ten seats (seven in CIE and three in M.V.College of Education) are reserved in the B.Ed. programme for students who have offered Education as a subject (with three full papers) at the B.A. level. The candidates must have secured minimum 50% aggregate in Education in addition to other eligibility conditions.

(f) General: (Gen)

The remaining seats will be open to all.

(g) Foreign Students:

A maximum of four seats in the Department of Education, two seats in the M.V. College of Education and one in SPM College can be allocated to candidates from outside India. All eligible candidates from outside India are exempted from the B.Ed. Entrance Test. However, they will have to undergo a special test on proficiency in the English language and an interview which the Department of Education will conduct. Such candidates are advised to apply through the Foreign Students' Advisor, University of Delhi.

Note: As per the Supreme Court ruling, candidates belonging to the reserved categories and who have been found eligible for admission in the general merit list, will be admitted against seats in the general category. The seats for the reserved categories will, then, be filled-up from the remaining candidates in the reserved categories as follows :

1. The candidates belonging to the reserved categories will compete for the reserved seats among themselves. A final selection list will be prepared on the basis of their performance in the Entrance Test and their preference for the institution .
2. In case of non-availability of suitable candidates for the reserved seats, the vacancies will be treated as unreserved and will be filled up accordingly.
3. All other conditions and requirements of admission for the reserved categories will be the same as for unreserved candidates.

7. SCHOOL TEACHING SUBJECTS

After admission, B.Ed. students are required to offer two school teaching subjects which they will be required to teach at the primary, secondary and/or senior secondary level for their School Experience Programme (SEP).

These school teaching subjects will either be the same or will be related to the subjects chosen for the Entrance Test, as per the eligibility conditions. In addition to subject options in List I, students can also opt for Integrated Science, Environmental Studies or Social Science as a school teaching subject, provided they have qualified the Entrance Test in appropriate subject(s) from Stream A or Stream C (I) / (II).

- A – Level: A subject at A-level is available for teaching at the middle and secondary level (Classes VI to X). Graduates and Post-Graduates both can opt for teaching a subject at A -level provided they have studied that subject at the graduate level as per the eligibility conditions. Only the subjects referred to in List-I are available for teaching at the A - level.
- B – Level: A subject at B-level is available for teaching at the senior secondary level (Classes XI to XII). Only Post-Graduates can opt for teaching a subject at B-level provided they have studied that subject at the post graduate level as per the eligibility conditions. The subjects referred to in List-I and List-II are available for teaching at the B-level. Post graduate students can opt for one subject at the B-level and the same or another at A-level. No student can opt for two different subjects at B- level, except for those with M.Com. who will teach Accountancy and Business Studies at B-level.

- C – Level: A subject at C-level is available for teaching at the primary level (Classes I to V). Graduates and post-graduates can both opt for teaching a subject at C-level provided they have studied that subject at the graduate level as per the eligibility conditions. At C-level only three subjects are available: Environmental Studies (EVS), Hindi and Mathematics.

Students with M.A. in Philosophy, Sociology or Psychology may opt for any other A-level subject or C-level subject as their second school teaching subject, provided they have qualified the Entrance Test in that subject.

All school teaching subjects are offered at all three institutions with the following exceptions :

Art and Music	–	Only at CIE
Other languages	–	Urdu, Punjabi only at MVCOE Bengali & Tamil only at CIE

Disputes, if any, arising out of or relating to any matter whatsoever, concerning the process of admission shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent court in Delhi only.
