Section 5 (Judges Only)

Judges at DAIMUN ICJ 2014 will hold an extremely prestigious position, and therefore are expected to demonstrate analytical and evaluative skills of the highest level. There are only 10 positions for Judges; as a result, the selection process will be rigorous. Prospective Judges too must write the application essay and attach it as an annexure to the application.

Are you interested in being given the position of Judge? YES/NO

Section 6

Application Essay.

Discuss the legal merits of the Senkaku Islands dispute between China and Japan in approximately 700-900 words keeping in mind:

- a) The jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice
- b) The role of international law and past treaties.

Applicants should keep in mind that the focus is on the legal merits of the case and are advised to focus from the perspective of international law. Applicants should also keep in mind that innovation (in terms of the new ideas or arguments discussed in the essay) will be seen in a positive light and are thus recommended to be original while writing the essay.

Applications are not judged based on the views expressed; instead they are judged on how well the views and opinions are justified. A display of a wide understanding of world affairs, the use of keen insightful analysis and the application of powerful reasoning skills are the basis on which applicants are assessed.
