About the Programme

The Integrated M. Phil – Ph. D. programme is a five year full time programme. All the candidates admitted to the Integrated M. Phil – Ph. D programme will follow a common course curriculum in Research Methodology. However, for M. Phil in Education, Women's Studies, Health System Studies* and Development Studies there will be a subject specific taught M. Phil. Programme of four semesters. The first year of the programme comprises of course work while in the second year, students will work towards completing their M.Phil Dissertation.

The Ph.D. programme is designed for candidates with a minimum of five years of post-graduate relevant experience in the field being proposed for research by the candidate. Selected candidates can pursue Ph.D. either by staying on the TISS campus (subject to availability of accommodation) or from whichever location they are based in. TISS does not make any distinction among research scholars as full time and part time. However, selected candidates who are not residing in the Campus, are expected to be in touch with the research guide, attend modular programmes/courses (also applicable for direct on campus PhD scholars who do not hold an M.Phil degree), pay fees regularly, ensure timely submission of progress reports and fulfill the necessary requirements of the Ph.D. programme.

* Subject to Research Council, Academic Council approval.

* Course work for additional programme(s) may be made available for Academic year 2014 based on Research Council, Academic council approval.

Candidates applying for Integrated M.Phil/Ph.D. and Direct Ph. D. Programme in Education, Development Studies and Women's Studies at the Mumbai Campus should refer to the details about eligibility, rationale, objectives and programme structure as per the details provided on the TISS website (www.tiss.edu).

Candidates applying for Integrated M.Phil/Ph.D. in Education, Women's Studies at the Hyderabad Campus should refer to the details about eligibility, rationale, objectives and programme structure as per the details provided on the TISS campus website (<http://www.campus.tiss.edu/>)

*The relevant information for the Hyderabad Campus will be available on the above mentioned website in early February.
