THE INSTITUTE

The Army Institute of Law (AIL) was established in July 1999 by the Indian Army under the aegis of the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES) at its interim location at Patiala. AIL shifted to its permanent campus in Sector 68, Mohali (Pb) in July 2003. It has a magnificent residential campus at Mohali with an impressive architectural structure in the vicinity of Chandigarh and Punjab & Haryana High Court. The Institute is fully residential with boys and girls staying in their respective hostels. AIL Mohali Campus was inaugurated by H.E. Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, President of India on Dec 1, 2003.

AFFILIATION AND APPROVAL

AIL is affiliated to Punjabi University, Patiala and approved by the Bar Council of India.

LOCATION

The Army Institute of Law is presently located at Sector 68, Mohali at a distance of about 1.5 Kms from Mohali Bus Stand, about 6 Kms from Chandigarh Bus Stand and about 15 Kms from Chandigarh Railway Station.

INTER DISCIPLINARY FIVE YEAR CURRICULUM

BA, LL.B. 5-year Degree course comprising 10 semesters has been adopted with the objective of imparting an all encompassing knowledge of Social Science subjects viz., Literature, Sociology, Economics, Political Science and History at the initial stage. This is advantageous in the study of Law and the students are equipped with a strong base for undertaking professional legal education and training. Students are awarded Degree of B.A. (Law) after the successful completion of their first three years of study. After full five years study of social sciences and law courses, they are awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

MASTER'S PROGRAM AT AIL

The Institute is all set to begin with the Post Graduation Course (LL.M.) for the semester 2011-2012. The Course/Syllabus is on the lines of the Punjabi University, Patiala

AIL VISION

AIL has already emerged as one of the leading National Law Institute in the country and its vision aims at Numero Uno Status. The focus is on: -

Qualitative Growth in selected areas.

-  Motivation building among the students
-  Internal autonomy
-  Self Sufficiency
-  Faculty Growth
-  Highest standard of disciplined and work culture
-  Focus on Higher Legal Research and Funded Projects.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

To establish AIL as a centre of excellence in the field of legal education by adopting modern teaching and training techniques.

To impart high quality legal education and professional training to the wards of Army Personnel as well as the civilians leading to B.A., LL.B., Degree as well as Post Graduation Course.

To provide practical training and to assist students in job placement on successful completion of Law Course.

To promote academic excellence, discipline, personal character, high sense of ethical and moral values and spirit of national integration among the students of AIL.

To promote sports, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities for overall personality development.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The teaching methodology adopted at AIL is intensive as well as extensive class-room teaching involving active participation of the students. Theoretical class room teaching is supplemented by clinical legal work. It also includes preparation of project reports, project presentation, submission of assignments, participation in seminars, Moot Courts and taking tests etc. The students are awarded for their best academic and professional performances.

SPECIAL LECTURES

Modern Legal Education not only requires involvement of Faculty in the class room teaching, but also interaction of the students and faculty with eminent Judges, Lawyers, Social Scientists. To that end, AIL has instituted "Distinguished Lecture Series" where Judges of Supreme Court, High Court, Senior Advocates, Social Scientists and Experts from Law and other allied fields, from India and abroad are invited to deliver lectures and/or to hold interactive Workshop and Seminars on Saturdays.

IN-COURSE ATTACHMENT

To provide maximum opportunity to the students for professional exposure, attachment of the students for practical training with High Court Judges, eminent Lawyers and Law Firms is arranged for a duration of 4-6 weeks for 4th & 5th Year Students and court visits for 1st, 2nd and 3rd Year students. In addition, subject to availability of time, all days in Lawyers chambers at Chandigarh and AIL provides transport facility for the aforesaid attachment.
