KNOW YOUR RETIREMENT BENEFITS

(For Personal use only)

PREFACE

The benefits that would accrue on cessation from service are spread over circulars, regulations and administrative instructions issued from time to time. In most of the cases, the employees on cessation of service are in doubt as to whether all the benefits that should accrue to them have been received or not and if received correctly received or not. An effort is therefore made to enumerate the various benefits on cessation from service so that the employees, on cessation from service, would be confident to check and satisfy that all the benefits for which they are eligible, have been correctly granted to them.

The entire effort has now come in a capsule and we are sure that our employees on cessation of service will find this booklet very useful.

It is however made clear that what is presented in this booklet is only a brief and in case of any doubt and requirement of complete details, one has to refer to the relevant rules/circulars.

For any clarification/details etc. one may contact Head Office: Staff Welfare Division; Manipal.

(S BALAKRISHNAN)
GENERAL MANAGER (P)

01. PL Encashment :

Eligible components of Pay and allowances are Basic Pay, Dearness Allowance, HRA, CCA, Split Duty allowance, Special Area Allowance, Project Area Allowance, Hill and Fuel Allowance, PQP, Deputation allowance, Personal allowance, Fixed Pay Allowances and Notional HRA applicable to the place of posting (if quarters provided) is to be included. The pro-rata PL earned during the year till the date of retirement is to be credited to the PL account. Payments are made at the Branch/Office where the employee has retired from service. Maximum of 240 days of PL can be encashed.

Encashment of privilege leave on retirement is exempt upto a maximum of ₹3,00,000/- which is to be calculated on the basis of Average Salary (BP + D.A + Other Allowances ranking for EPF) drawn during the last 10 months immediately preceding cessation of service.

02. Gratuity:

With effect from 24.05.2010 maximum amount of gratuity payable is increased to ₹10 lakhs under Gratuity Act and there is no ceiling under SBOSR/BPS. Amount of gratuity payable is calculated as below:

(a) Under Payment of Gratuity Act:

Gratuity Amount = Salary* x 15 x No. of years of service ÷ 26

*Salary = gross pay as on the date of last attending the duty minus HRA, CCA, Washing allowance, Conveyance Allowance. Out of FPP only increment component to be taken (Period of service beyond six months shall be rounded off to next higher year. EOL on LOP beyond 360 days and Unauthorised absence should not be taken into a/c for the purpose of service)

(b) Under SBOSR/BPS :

- (i) For service upto 15 years = Pay x Number of years of service
- (ii) For service of above 15 years upto 30 years = Pay x 15
- (iii) For service of above 30 years = (Pay x 15) + (Pay x No. of years of service beyond 30 ÷ 2)

Pay = Basic pay + stagnation increment + other allowances (ranking for PF only)

For officers, last drawn pay as on the date of cessation to be taken into a/c. For service of six months and above, in the case of more than 30 years of service, gratuity shall be calculated on pro rata basis.

For workmen, average of the Pay components for last 12 months immediately preceding the cessation of service shall be taken into a/c. Service of six months and above shall be rounded off to next higher year.

Service of less than six months should not be taken into a/c in both the cases.

The higher of the two in (a) i.e. Gratuity as per Act or (b) i.e. Gratuity as per SBOSR / BPS will be paid.

Gratuity Paid upto ₹10.00 lakhs is exempt from income tax with effect from 24th May 2010.

03. Pension:

- (i) To be eligible for pension, an employee has to render a minimum of ten years of service on the date of retirement on superannuation. Broken period of service of more than six months shall be treated as one year.
- (ii) An employee who has opted for pension, on completion of 20 years of qualifying service, may voluntarily retire from the services, by giving a notice of not less than 3 months.
- (iii) An employee who has rendered minimum service of 10 years and retires on a/c of any bodily or mental infirmity which permanently incapacitates him for the service, is eligible for invalid pension.
- (iv) An employee whose qualifying service is 33 years or more is eligible for full pension i.e. 50% of the pay. Pay means, average pay (EPF ranking) drawn during the last 10 months of service. If the qualifying service is less than 33 years, basic pension is equal to $\text{Pay} \times \text{Qualifying service} \div 66$.
- (v) Total pension receivable per month is equal to Basic pension + applicable DA on basic pension. DA rate will be as applicable to regular employees, but will be varied only in February and August every year.

Commutation:

A pensioner, if he so desires, can commute a maximum of 1/3 of basic pension at any time. However, in case the commutation is requested after one year of cessation of service, medical examination is compulsory. The amount payable on commutation is Commuted basic pension $\times 12 \times$ Commutation value. Commutation value for different age from 17 years to 85 years is given in Cir.226/95/BC and for ready reference the same for age group from 55 to 64 years is given below:

Age on next birthday	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64
Commutation value	11.73	11.42	11.10	10.78	10.46	10.13	9.81	9.48	9.15	8.82

Commutation amount is fully exempt from income tax. After commutation, a pensioner will get total pension equal to residual basic pension (basic pension minus commuted portion) + DA on basic pension before commutation. Commuted portion of pension will be restored after 180 months from the date of commutation. Commutation date, amount etc will be informed to the pensioner in the pension sanction letter issued to him.

Pension is treated as salary for the purpose of Tax calculations. TDS on pension payment has to be made as applicable and Form 16 to be issued by the branches.

Family Pension:

On death of an employee who had opted for pension or an ex-employee who was in receipt of pension, his family becomes eligible for family pension. The rate of family pension for those who ceased to be in service on different dates is given in Annexure 1. The rate of family pension shall be equal to fifty percent of the pay last drawn or twice the family pension admissible whichever is less, for a period of 7 years from the date of death or for a period upto the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier, provided the employee had rendered not less than 7 years continuous service. The family pension is payable upto the date of death or re-marriage in the case of spouse, till the age of 25 years or upto the date of marriage/remarriage whichever is earlier in the case of son or daughter provided they are dependent.

Life Certificate:

All the Pensioner have to submit Life certificate as per Annexure 2 during November every year. The Family pensioners have to submit Non Marriage/remarriage certificate as per Annexure 3 in addition to the life certificate

04. Additional Gratuity to employees dying in harness.

The scheme was instituted by the Bank during the year 1981 to provide financial assistance to the family members of the employees dying while in service.

The Additional Gratuity is the difference between the normal gratuity and the gratuity that would have become payable to the employee, either under the Gratuity Act or under the Bipartite Settlement/Officers' Service Regulations, had the employee survived till superannuation. This is a staff welfare measure and the amount is paid out of staff welfare fund.

05. Scheme for writing off liabilities of employees dying in harness:

The scheme was introduced in the Bank with effect from 01.06.1999 to write off the outstanding Bank liabilities of the employee dying in harness to the extent of specified limits.

W.e.f. 01.03.2011 the outstanding liabilities not exceeding ₹4.00 lakh in case of officer employees and ₹3.00 lakh in case of award staff, are being written off.

The liabilities are to be written off in the following order only: (not exceeding the limits mentioned above)

- a. Festival Advance
- b. Sundry Advance outstanding
- c. Unsecured loans such as DL and ODC
- d. Vehicle Loan
- e. Additional Housing loan @ PLR
- f. Staff Housing Loan
- g. OSL/SOD on LIC policy/NSCs & Jewel Loan.

It must be ensured that other than Festival and Sundry advance, only direct liabilities under staff loan scheme, in the individual name of the staff are written off and ineligible/indirect liabilities like advance rent, education loan with children, general HL, credit card dues, Society dues, etc are not eligible for write off. With effect from 01.04.2014, SyndNivas and SyndVahan loan are also included in the eligible loan for write off.

06. Scheme for Reimbursement of Educational Expenses of the children of deceased employees:

The scheme is being implemented with effect from 01.12.2001 to mitigate the hardships of the families of the deceased employees in providing higher education to their children.

The reimbursement of tuition fee mentioned hereunder is restricted to first two children up to graduation level including Medical/engineering course to those who secure the admission on merit.

Course	Reimbursement per child
Unto XII Standard	₹200/- per month
Graduation	Full tuition fee or ₹3000/- per academic year whichever is less
Engineering	50% of tuition fee or ₹50000/- (₹12,500/- per academic year) whichever is less.
Medicine	25% of tuition fees or ₹80,000/- (₹20,000/- per academic year) whichever is less.

Relevant bills and certificate from Educational Institution that he is a bonafide regular student of the school/college confirming admission of the student, is to be furnished to the branch by the family of the deceased employee.

Whenever tuition fees are waived by educational institutions, other fees like Computer Fees, Lab Fees, etc may be included for reimbursement within the overall limit. These revised guidelines are applicable to those claiming reimbursement of education expenses during the Financial year 2014-15 in respect of academic year 2013-2014.

7. Payment of funeral expenses to the dependents of employees dying in harness :
