Notification

No. DPAR 19 SCR 2006, Bangalore, dated 14th August, 2006

Whereas the draft of the Karnataka Civil Services (Direct Recruitment by Competitive Examinations and Selection) (General) Rules, 2006 was published as required by clause (a) of sub-section (2) of Section 3 read with Section 8 of the Karnataka State Civil Services Act, 1978 (Karnataka Act 14 of 1990) in Notification No. DPAR 19 SCR 2006 dated 24-7-2006 and in Part IV-A of the Karnataka Gazette Extraordinary dated 24-7-2006 inviting objections and suggestions from all persons likely to be affected thereby within fifteen days from the date of publication of the draft in the official Gazette.

Whereas the said Gazette was made available to the public on 24th July 2006.

And whereas the suggestions and objections received have been considered by the State Government.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 read with section 8 of the Karnataka State Civil Services Act, 1978 (Karnataka Act 14 of 1990) the Government of Karnataka hereby makes the following rules, namely:-

1. Title, commencement and application.- (1) These rules may be called the Karnataka Civil Services (Direct Recruitment by Competitive Examinations and Selection) (General) Rules, 2006.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

(3) These rules shall apply to all posts in Group-A, Group-B, Group-C and Group-D, which are to be filled by direct recruitment, for which no special or general rules have been made prescribing the method for such direct recruitment.

2. Definitions.- (1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) "Appointing Authority" in relation to a Government Servant means the appointing authority specified in the Karnataka Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1957;

(b) "Commission" means the Karnataka Public Service Commission;

(c) "Qualifying Examination" means the examination or examinations prescribed, in the rules of recruitment specially made in respect of any service or post as the minimum qualification for direct recruitment; and

(d) "Technical Post" means a post for which the qualifying examination prescribed is a technical qualification notified as such by the State Government for the purpose of these rules or a post graduate degree or doctorate prescribed as qualifying examination.

(2) Words and expressions used in these rules but not defined therein shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Karnataka Civil Services (General Recruitment) Rules, 1977.

3. Intimation of vacancies.- The appointing authority in each department shall, from time to time, communicate to the Commission, the provisional number of direct recruitment vacancies to be filled in Group-A, Group-B and Group-C except the posts of drivers in Group-C, classifying the same in accordance with the orders in force, relating to reservation of appointments or posts. The appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, alter the number of vacancies released to the commission at any time before the publication of the select list.

4. Inviting applications.- The commission shall take necessary steps to invite applications from eligible candidates by advertising the vacancies in the Karnataka Gazette specifying the conditions of eligibility, method of selection applicable, nature of post whether technical or non-technical, provisional number of vacancies to be filled and their classification according to reservation policy of the State. An abstract of such advertisement shall also be published in more than one widely circulated news paper in the regional language and such other media of publication as it may deem fit.

5. Method of selection.- The method of direct recruitment under these rules shall be on the basis of average of total percentage of marks secured in the qualifying examination in respect of technical posts and percentage of total marks secured in the competitive examination conducted by the commission under rule 6(B) of these rules in respect of non technical posts and the marks secured in an interview conducted by the Commission.

6. Selection of candidates eligible for interview.- The Commission shall prepare a list of names of candidates eligible for interview prepared on the basis of merit determined in the following manner, namely:-

(A) In respect of technical posts,-

(i) Where only one qualifying examination is prescribed, the percentage of marks secured in such qualifying examination shall be the basis for determination of order of merit:

Provided that where the rules of recruitment to any cadre or post prescribe any preferential or desirable qualification (whether academic or otherwise), then all candidates possessing such qualifications shall be eligible for interview, irrespective of the marks obtained in the qualifying examination.

(ii) Where the qualifying examination consists of more than one examination the percentage of total marks secured in the qualifying examination shall be the average percentage of marks secured in those examinations for determination of order of merit.

(iii) Where different qualifying examinations have been prescribed alternatively in the rules of recruitment applicable to a post or category of posts and a candidate has passed more than one such qualifying examination the percentage of total marks obtained in the qualifying examination shall be the percentage of total marks obtained in such qualifying examination in which he has obtained highest percentage of total marks for determination of order of merit.

(iv) Where the qualifying examination prescribed is a Doctorate obtained on the basis of thesis submitted by the candidate, the percentage of marks secured by the candidates in the qualifying examination shall be deemed to be ninety five.

(v) Subject to reservation policy of the State, from among the candidates whose names are included in the list of candidates, such number of candidates as is equal to five times the number of vacancies notified shall be called for interview.

(vi) The maximum marks for interview shall be fifteen.

(B) In respect of non-technical posts,-

(i) the Commission shall conduct a competitive examination in the following manner, namely:-

(a) The examination shall be in the form of objective multiple choice consisting of two written papers carrying 200 marks each, namely:-

Paper-I: General Paper.- Covering General Knowledge of topics relating to current events, general sciences and matters of every day observation and practical knowledge as may be expected of a person who has passed the prescribed qualifying examination.

Paper-II: Specific Paper.- The content of this paper shall be determined by the commission keeping in a view the nature of the job for which the selection is being made and the qualifying examination in consultation with the head of the field department or the appointing authority concerned.

(b) The papers shall be set in both Kannada and English. A candidate may answer the papers either wholly in Kannada or in English but not in both:

Provided that if two or more candidates secure equal marks in the competitive examination, the order of merit of such candidates shall be fixed on the basis of their age, the person older in age being placed higher in the order of the merit.

(ii) a list of candidates shall be prepared in the order of merit determined on the basis of the percentage of total marks secured by the candidates in the above competitive examination;

(iii) subject to reservation policy of the State from among the candidates whose names are included in such list, such number of candidates as is equal to five times the number of vacancies notified, shall be called for the interview;

(iv) the maximum marks for interview shall be 12.2% of the total marks prescribed for the competitive examination.

7. Interview.- (1) The commission shall conduct interview of the eligible candidates and award marks based on the performance of the candidates in the interview and the marks so awarded shall be published on the notice board of its office on the day on which interview is held or on the day following but before the commencement of the interview on that day, a list of marks obtained by each candidate in the said interview:

Provided that where the interview is held in any place other than the place of its office, the said list shall be published in such other places also.

8. Final selection list of candidates.-

(1) In respect of technical posts: The Commission shall prepare a final selection list of candidates eligible for appointment on the basis of merit determined on the basis of the aggregate of the percentage of the total marks secured in the qualifying examination and of the marks secured in the interview and taking into consideration of the reservation policy of the State. The number of names of candidates to be included in such list shall be equal to the number of vacancies notified.

(2) In respect of non-technical posts: The commission shall prepare a final selection list of candidates eligible for appointment on the basis of merit determined on the basis of percentage of total marks secured in the competitive examination and the marks secured in the interview and taking into consideration the reservation policy of the State.

(3) The final selection list prepared under sub-rules (1) and (2) shall be published in the Karnataka Gazette and in such other media as the commission may deem fit and in such manner as the State Government may direct and a copy thereof shall be sent to the appointing authority concerned. The fact of selection shall be intimated to the candidates selected by the commission.

9. Appointment of candidates.- (1) The candidates, whose names are included in the select list made available by the commission under sub-rule (3) of rule 8 may be appointed by the appointing authority, in the order in which their names appear in the select list, after satisfying itself about the suitability and physical fitness of each such candidate in accordance with the provisions of the Karnataka Civil Services (General Recruitment) Rules, 1977.

(2) The inclusion of the name of a candidate in any select list published under sub-clause (3) of rule 8 shall not confer any right of appointment to the candidate.

(3) If a candidate consequent upon the issue of the order of appointment, does not report for duty, the vacancy against which he was selected shall be treated as a fresh vacancy to be filled in the next or subsequent recruitment.

10. Recruitment to the posts of Drivers in Group-C and posts in Group-D.- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, or the rules of recruitment specially made in respect of any service or post, the recruitment to the posts of drivers in Group-C and those in Group-D shall be made by the appointing authority in the order of merit on the basis of the aggregate of the percentage of total marks secured by the candidate in the qualifying examination specified in the rules of recruitment taking into consideration the orders in force relating to reservation. If two or more candidates secure equal percentage of marks in the qualifying examination, the order of merit of such candidates shall be fixed on the basis of their age, the person older in age being placed higher in the order of merit. For this purpose, the appointing authority shall intimate to the concerned employment exchange provisional number of vacancies to be filled duly classifying with details of the conditions of eligibility, nature of selection and obtain a list of candidates from concerned Employment Exchange. An abstract of such intimation shall also be published in two widely circulated regional newspapers and such other publication media in such form as the appointing authority may determine inviting applications from all the eligible candidates.

(2) The applications shall be made in the form specified by the appointing authority along with an application fee of rupees five to be remitted through a crossed Indian Postal Order purchased not earlier than fifteen days prior to the date of application payable to the appointing authority:

Provided that no fee shall be payable by a candidate belonging to Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes or to Category-I of other Backward Classes.

(3) A select list of candidates shall be prepared by the appointing authority in accordance with the sub-rule (1), the select list shall be published in the Karnataka Gazette and through such other media of publication as the appointing authority may deem fit and the selection shall be communicated by the appointing authority to the candidates selected. The candidates whose names are included in the select list may be appointed by the appointing authority in the order in which their names are found in it after satisfying itself about the suitability and physical fitness of each such candidate in accordance with the provisions of the Karnataka Civil Services (General Recruitment) Rules, 1977.

11. Application of other rules.- All the rules, for the time being in force, regulating the conditions of service of Government Servants, made or deemed to have been made under the Karnataka State Civil Services Act, 1978 (Karnataka Act 14 of 1990) in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of these rules, shall apply to the persons appointed under these rules.

12. Repeal and Savings.- (1) The Karnataka State Civil Services (Direct Recruitment by Competitive Examinations) (General) Rules, 2001 are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the said rules or anything duly done or suffered thereunder or affect any right, liability or obligation already acquired or incurred thereunder.

(2) Any reference in any rule or order to the rules repealed by sub-rule (1) shall be construed as a reference to the corresponding provisions of these rules.

(3) Notwithstanding such repeal, process of recruitment to any of the vacancies covered by the said repealed rules, if already commenced and pending on the date of commencement of these rules, shall be finalised in accordance with the said repealed rules as in force prior to the commencement of these rules, as if the said rules were not repealed.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,
