

HUDCO BUILD TECH – 2014 - ‘A prominent exhibition on Building Materials, Technologies & Services, Real Estate and Housing Finance’

Smt. Anita Agnihotri, Secretary, Ministry of Housing & Urban Poverty Alleviation, Government of India, inaugurated the HUDCO Build Tech – 2014 at the India International Trade Fair (IITF) displayed in the Hall No. 3 on 14th November, 2014.

This year, the exhibition is a display of HUDCO’s contribution in sustainable urban development focusing on funding of housing & infrastructure projects as well as innovative consultancy assignments in architecture, city planning, utilization of cost effective and sustainable building materials, technologies and services, as well as energy efficient green buildings, etc.

Hudco Build Tech – 2014 is showcasing display of work done by HUDCO in nation building through financing of projects and partnering in Government of India programmes, promotion of cost effective & environment friendly building materials and technology. Besides, various companies from Real Estate and Housing Finance is also participating in Hudco Build Tech. HUDCO pavilion has always earned a tremendous response from National and International visitors including professionals from diversified fields like Architecture, Interior Designers, Builders, Contractors, Civil Engineers and Consultants from various fields.

Special demonstration of EWS units displaying the innovative and cost effective technologies by Hindustan Prefab Limited (HPL) is the special attraction of the pavilion.