KURUKSHETRA UNIVERSITY

General

Located in Kurukshetra, the land of the Bhagwadgita, Kurukshetra University is a premier institute of higher learning in India. It is spread over 400 acres of land on the south bank of the holy BrahmSarovar. Its foundation stone was laid on January 11, 1957 by Bharatratna Dr.Rajendra Prasad, the first President of the Indian Republic. Since then it has aimed at pursuing excellence in teaching and research in science, technology, humanities, social sciences, performing arts and sports.

Today, Kurukshetra University is offering world-class education to students from throughout India and other countries by providing a learning experience designed to develop intellectual abilities, as well as social, moral and ethical values. The University is equipping its students with the skills, insights, attitudes and practical experience that will enable them to become discerning citizens.

The University's programs combine the enduring value of a liberal arts education with the skills and experience offered by professional departments. The University has 478 teaching faculty members. The University also has 361 affiliated colleges and institutes in the Districts of Ambala, Panipat, Kaithal, Yamuna Nagar, Hisar, Jind, Karnal, Kurukshetra and Panchkula.

The Campus of the University has often been rated as one of the most beautiful campuses in India. It resembles a large, self-contained village with lecture theatres, seminar rooms, accommodation, cafeterias, canteens, shops and sports facilities, libraries and laboratories. The most remarkable feature of the campus is the seamless interconnection of nature and the built environment. There are a number of lush green gardens, water fountains and side walks which provide an ideal environment on the campus for study and leisure.

Accreditation by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC)

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), an autonomous body of the University Grants Commission to assess and accredit universities and colleges, has conferred an 'A' grade to Kurukshetra University. The peer team of the NAAC evaluated the university's performance based on criteria like curriculum, teaching-learning and evaluation, infrastructure and learning resources, student support and progression, governance and leadership, innovative practices and so on. The peer team in its report has specially drawn reference to the University's "commitment to impart quality education to the students of the state, concerted efforts to preserve and create awareness of the rich cultural heritage of the State and academic tranquility and residential characteristics."

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

In the emerging global scenario of competition-focused education and training, quality sustenance and quality enhancement in the institutions has gained paramount importance. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell works to ensure quality in different activities related to academics and administration of the university. The Cell set up in the University has been effectively functioning for the last many years. Various improvement strategies based on feedback from the stakeholders like students, parents are recommended by the IQAC to ensure quality of our teaching research programmes.

International Students

In the age of globalization, Kurukshetra University has set out to make its presence felt globally through internationalization of its programmes and opening new avenues of association for global student community. In order to assist international students the University has an International Students’ Advisor who helps the International Students to understand the admission procedures of various university programmes, getting visa for admissions and also to help them live comfortably in the new environment. Every year the University admits international students sponsored by ICCR (Indian Council for Cultural Relations) and directly. The details of admission can be downloaded from the University website.

Corporate Resource Centre

The Corporate Resource Centre was established for a larger industry-academia interface in higher education at the university level. It is a nodal centre for faculty, academics and industry for interaction and research. The Centre is aimed at seeking wider industry participation in the academic research, course designing, and curricula delivery. The centre helps and encourages faculty to seek industry assignments and uses the same to acquaint students with latest and updated knowledge and practices. This has also opened up possibilities of bringing real life corporate experience in the interactive teaching-learning in classroom sessions.

Dr. Radhakrishnan Foundation Fund

Dr. Radhakrishnan Foundation Fund was established in the year 1994 for raising donations/mobilization of resources etc. for the overall development of the University under Financial Resources Mobilization (FRM) Scheme of the University Grants Commission (UGC). The annual interest accrued to the fund is utilized for award of scholarship etc. to the students.

Dharohar Museum

The University established Dharohar a museum dedicated to Haryana heritage and culture on April 28, 2006. Its huge popularity since then is reflected in the number of visitors who have visited the museum. Upto December 2012, the museum was visited by about 8 lac visitors.

The displays have been presented in a thematic concept spread over 30 distinct sections. Just as the photo gallery of war heroes and freedom fighters is a sensitive presentation - the first of its kind in the state, the section on the archaeological and architectural heritage is a unique collection that depicts the richness of Haryana's past. Besides a rare gallery of photo, it has 20 pieces of archaeological finds going back to the period between the 5th century AD and the 10th century AD. The section on manuscripts has 53 manuscripts dating back to 500 years.

The Museum's agricultural heritage has been beautifully displayed in distinct sections devoted to agriculture, water, cattle rearing, grain storage. The transport heritage of Haryana is presented by actual items painstakingly restored. The latest addition to the museum is a photo gallery based on the work of Sh. Raj Kishan Nain. It is an outstanding display of Haryana's society-in its various forms. A whole floor has been devoted to these 172 large size photographs. The Museum also houses a literacy and research centre devoted to the promotion of quality research in various disciplines of study on Haryana.

The Museum is now poised for a major expansion Phase Second in Dharohar. This phase will be devoted to the expansion of the present concept of folk and cultural heritage in village form.

Women's Studies Research Centre

The Centre reflects the University's commitment to society and its policy of inclusive growth. The Centre is fulfilling its objectives of women empowerment through research, curriculum development, documentations, networking, providing counseling services and launching awareness programmes. The Centre offers two full time courses in Women's Studies - M.A. (Women Studies) two years (semester system) and PG Diploma in Women's Studies one year (annual examination). Gender Sensitization workshops are organized for various sectors of society including the development functionaries of the State. The Centre has also been working as a nodal agency to guide and monitor the functions of all Women Cells in the colleges of Haryana. The Centre is also the UGC nodal centre for the scheme on capacity building of Women Managers in higher education of the Northern Region. The centre is now a phase III Centre of the University Grants Commission making it one of the top few in the country.

Institute of Sanskrit and Indological Studies

The Institute of Sanskrit and Indological Studies was established in 1963 under the auspices of the faculty of Indic Studies. Initially it started the publication of Praci-Jyoti-Research Digest of Indological Studies (published annually), which is continuously serving the needs of scholars throughout the world and have brought out 42 volumes. The Institute has undertaken a Major Research Project, "A Word-Concordance of Mahabharata,” which is to be published in Fifteen Volumes. So far six volumes have been published.

National Cadet Corps

The University has a well-equipped contingent of NCC Battalion under the charge of experienced and trained officers of 10 Haryana Bn. NCC Kurukshetra. Separate arrangements have been made for boys and girls to facilitate them to join NCC. Apart from regular training parades, the Cadets attend NCC Camps for centralized training with their counterparts from other institutions. The Units prepare them for taking up the higher NCC Certificate Examinations. NCC Cadets are also groomed for assisting the administration in the proper and orderly conduct of special events and in relief work in civic emergencies. The Unit also present brief programmes during the Republic and Independence Day Celebrations, and on special occasions such as the NCC Day. The University lays special emphasis on training students for the armed forces by arranging lectures and guidance programmes.

Mahatma Gandhi All India Service Coaching Institute

The MGAIS Coaching Institute was established in the year 1982 with the prime objective to encourage the students coming from the downtrodden and backward sections of the society by providing them coaching for various competitive examinations. Besides the Institute is aimed at to provide coaching to SC/ST candidates preparing for various Civil Services examinations. Apart from the Civil Services (Prelim.), courses like Bank Probationary Officers examinations; MBA Entrance Examination; Haryana Civil Services (Executive Branch) and Remedial Coaching are also undertaken by the Institute.

Presently Institute is running following three schemes sponsored by the UGC :

- Remedial Coaching for SC/ST and Minorities;
- Coaching for NET for SC/ST and Minorities; and
- Coaching Class for Entry in Service for SC/ST and Minorities.

However, candidates from General Category and BC/OBC are also entertained in similar schemes on self-finance basis.

For the convenience of the candidates and due acknowledgement to University Academic Calendar and competition examination schedules, Institute has fixed two course schedule as under :

- | | | |
|-----------|-------------------------|-------------|
| Course-I | : January to March | (Each Year) |
| Course-II | : September to November | (Each Year) |

Gender Sensitization Committee against Sexual Harassment (GSCASH)

The Gender Sensitization Committee against Sexual Harassment was established in the University from the Academic Session 2005-06. GSCASH helps to implement the guidelines laid down by the Supreme Court of India in Vishaka Vs State of Rajasthan (1997) for prevention and deterrence of sexual harassment in the work place. Kurukshetra University is committed to providing a place of work and study free of sexual harassment. It is expected that all Students, Faculty, Staff, Karamcharies and Officials will treat one another and visitors to the University with respect. Any one violating the policy against sexual harassment is subject to disciplinary action. The GSCASH has three major functions :

1. Gender Sensitization and Orientation.
2. Crisis Management and Mediation
3. Formal Enquiry and Redressal.

Sexual harassment can take place in various forms : some subtle, and indirect, some blatant and overt.

For example :

- (i) It may be conducted towards an individual of the opposite sex or the same sex.
- (ii) It may occur between peers or between individuals in hierarchical relationship.
- (iii) It may be aimed at coercing an individual to participate in an unwanted sexual relationship or it may have the effect of causing an individual to change behaviour or work performance.
- (iv) It may consist of repeated actions or may even arise from a single incident.

Students can take help from the Committee (GSCASH) ; none should hesitate to ask for help. Speaking up may prevent others from being harmed as well.

Career and Counseling Cell

In the 11th five year Plan of UGC, provision of establishing a Career and Counseling Cell with an objective to address the diverse socio-economic handicaps and geographic backgrounds of the heterogeneous population of students coming to the Universities vis-à-vis equity of access and placement opportunities through availability of appropriate institutional support information has been made. It has to support the students in the development of soft skills and communication ability to challenge the rigors of competitive tests and on-job-training in add-on or vocational courses, besides inculcating social values and ability to think independently for carrying out social responsibilities. The counseling cell has to be a resource centre of information, guidance and counseling with free accessibility and internet based global connectivity and exchange of information on professional placements. The Cell will operate under the supervision of the Co-ordinator Dr. Sunil Dhingra, Associate Prof., I.I.E., as well as three other members in accordance with the terms & conditions (Guidelines) of the University Grants Commission available at UGC website www.ugc.ac.in

Important Notes :

- (i) As Hostel accommodation may not be available to M.Phil. students because of paucity of hostel accommodation, they will be required to make their own boarding and lodging arrangements outside the campus.
- (ii) If the last date for the receipt of Admission Forms falls on a holiday or that day is declared holiday by the University, the next working day will be considered as the last date for the purpose.
- (iii) After checking the original document, selected candidates will be given Admission Slips. On production of the admission slips in the Fee Section, they will obtain the necessary voucher and deposit their fees in the State Bank of India, on the University Campus. After depositing the fees in the Bank the candidates will go to the Fee Section and obtain their Class Roll No. by submitting the Bank receipt. After obtaining their Class Roll Nos. candidates will present in the office of the concerned Department and get their names entered in the Department Admission Register.
- (iv) If a candidate does not get the Roll Number slip from the Fee Section and the concerned Department after depositing the fees in the Bank within the time limit fixed for depositing the fee. His/her admission will be treated as cancelled even though he or she may have deposited the fee, his or her seat will be treated as vacant and will be allotted to the next candidate. Such a candidate will bear the responsibility for this lapse himself/herself.
- (v) Students will be allowed to submit their dissertation only on clearance of all the theory papers.

ELIGIBILITY CERTIFICATE

The eligibility for admission to M.Phil. will be checked by the Chairperson of the Department concerned at their own level and after provisional admission, the Regn. Branch will check all documents of admitted candidates.

The candidates who have passed lower examination from foreign University or Boards are required to deposit Rs.500/- as eligibility fee for obtaining eligibility certificate. The eligibility certificate will be issued by the Registration Branch on checking the required documents such as student's visa and original documents of the foreign applicants. No candidate can be given provisional admission under any circumstances, without obtaining eligibility certificate.

SECTION-IX : FEES

Admission Fee :

The amount of tuition fee and other charges payable by each student for M.Phil will be Rs.5200/-. In addition to this, in departments where the practical component is involved, each student will be required to pay an extra amount of Rs.2500/- (Rs.1250/- for SC Candidates) as Lab charges at the time of admission. Tuition fees and other monthly dues will be payable for 12 months in a year.

Benefits of fee for SC Candidates of Haryana

There is a Post Matric Scholarship Scheme of GOI for welfare of SC as per letter No.FC SC/BC/2011/204/98 dated 17.01.2011 of the Financial Commissioner & Principal Secretary to Govt. Haryana Welfare of SC & BC, Chandigarh. SC students whose parents/guardian income is upto Rs.2.00 lac per annum are eligible for benefits under the scheme. The benefits include enrollment/registration, tuition, games, Union, Library, Magazine, Medical Examination and such other fees compulsorily payable by the student to the institution or University/Board. Refundable deposit like caution money, security deposit are, however, excluded. For students admitted under this scheme the application form has to be submitted by the students to the concerned Chairperson/Director of the Department/Institute.

Note : An income declaration will be furnished by the self-employed parents/guardian of SC candidates, stating definite income from all sources by way of an affidavit on non-judicial stamp paper. Employed parents/guardian are required to obtain income certificates from their employer and for any additional income from other sources, they would furnish declaration by way of an affidavit on non-judicial stamp paper.

Instructions against Ragging :

With fifty five years of its existence, Kurukshetra University has earned recognition as one of the renowned centres of teaching and research in the country. We appreciate the parents and the students for their interest and option towards pursuing their higher studies at Kurukshetra University. We wish them success in their plans towards getting admission in the programme of their choice on the campus. Those who succeed in joining a course, should be making best use of the excellent facilities and congenial atmosphere available in the University towards all-round development of their personality. We would expect our students to make best use of this opportunity and grow as able and responsible citizens. Students will be required to work hard with their energies focused towards achieving their goal.

We take pride in informing all those desirous of seeking admission, that over all these years, our University has the best traditions of maintaining a healthy and congenial academic environment. We are also glad to convey that with the determined and sincere efforts of our senior students and faculty, our campus has been free from the menace of Ragging.

What Constitutes Ragging : Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts :

- (a) any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;
- (b) indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- (c) asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- (d) any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- (e) exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students;

- (f) any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- (g) any act of physical abuse including all variants of it : sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- (h) any act or abuse by spoken words, e-mails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student;
- (i) any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

All the senior students are advised to guide and treat junior students affectionately.

Junior students may contact their Chairpersons or other University functionaries like Proctor, Dean Students Welfare, Chief Warden, Wardens or Chief Security Officer for help and guidance.

Appendix-A

Instructions regarding Bonafide Residents of Haryana issued vide letter No.62/17/95-6 GSI dated 3rd October, 1996, No.62/32/2000-6GSI dated 23rd May, 2003, No.62/27/2003-6GSI dated 29th July, 2003 and No.62/62/2012-6GSI dated 17th January, 2012 by the Chief Secretary to Government, Haryana.

Subject: Bonafide residents of Haryana - Guidelines regarding.

1. I am directed to invite your attention to Haryana Govt. letters noted in the margin on the subject noted above vide which the instructions were issued regarding simplification of procedure for obtaining the certificate of Domicile for the purpose of admission to educational institution (including technical/medical institution). The matter has been reconsidered in the light of judgment delivered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Dr. Pradeep Jain vs. Union of India and others reported as AIR 1984-SC-1421, wherein it has been held that instead of the word 'Domicile' the word 'Resident' be used in the instructions issued by the State Government and it has been decided to revise the Government instructions. Henceforth, the following categories of persons would be eligible for the grant of Resident Certificate:-
 - (i) Candidates, who have passed the examination qualifying there for selection in an institution from a school/college in Haryana.
 - (ii) Children/Wards (if parents are not living)/Dependents: -
 - (a) of the regular employees of Haryana State posted in or outside Haryana State or working on deputation;
 - (b) of the regular employees of the statutory bodies/corporations established by or under an act of the State of Haryana who are posted in Chandigarh or in Haryana or outside Haryana.
 - (c) of the regular employees of the Government of India posted in Chandigarh or in Haryana in connection with the affairs of the Haryana Government;
 - (iii) Children/wards (if parents not living)/dependents of persons who after retirement have permanently settled in Haryana and draw their pensions from the treasuries situated in the State of Haryana.
 - (iv) Children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependents of pensioners of Haryana Government irrespective of the fact that the original home of the retiree is in a state other than Haryana or he has settled after retirement in or outside Haryana;
 - (v) Children/Wards (if parents are not living)/dependents of persons, who have permanent home in Haryana and include persons who have been residing in Haryana for a period of not less than 15 years or who have permanent home in Haryana but on account of their occupation they are living outside Haryana;
 - (vi) The wives of such persons who are bonafide residents of Haryana irrespective of the fact that they had belonged to any other State before marriage;
 - (vii) Persons who were born in Haryana and produce a certificate to that effect; provided that the parents/guardians (if parents are not living) of persons belonging to any one of the above mentioned categories are :
 - (a) Citizen of India;
 - (b) Produce an affidavit to the effect that they or their children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependents have not obtained the benefit of Resident in any other State.
 - (viii) Children & Wards of the accredited journalists residing at Chandigarh and recognised by Govt. of Haryana.
2. All candidates claiming to be bonafide residents of Haryana should produce a Haryana Resident Certificate signed by the District Magistrate/General Assistant to Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Divisional Officer (Civil) of the District/Sub-Divisions/Tehsildars of Revenue to which the candidates belong. Resident Certificates in respect of elsewhere or in respect of the Children/Wards/Dependents of Haryana Govt. employees who are posted at Chandigarh, Delhi or elsewhere or in respect of Children/Wards/Dependents of pensioners of Haryana Govt. or in respect of the Children/Wards/Department of the employees of the Government of India posted at Chandigarh or in Haryana in connection with the affairs of Haryana Government, or in respect of Children/Wards/Dependents of the employees and retirees of the Statutory Bodies/Corporations of Haryana established by or under an Act of the State of Haryana or a Central Act and located at Chandigarh, Haryana or outside Haryana, should be by their respective Heads of Departments.

3. Candidates seeking admission in educational institutions (including medical and technical institutions) located in Haryana, may not be required to produce Resident Certificate, if they have passed the examination from a school/college situated in Haryana. For this purpose, a certificate of the Principal/Headmaster from concerned institution where the children/wards studied last should be considered sufficient. The Principal/Headmaster of the institution shall be competent to issue such certificate, which should be sufficient.
4. If a candidate is admitted on the basis of claim that he belongs to the State of Haryana but at any subsequent time is discovered that his claim was false, the student shall be removed from the institution, all fees and other dues paid upto the date of such removal shall be confiscated. The Principal/Headmaster may take such other action against the student and his/her parents/guardians as he may deem proper in the circumstances of any particular case.
5. The children/wards/dependents of the employees of Punjab & Haryana High Court, who are discharging their duties in connection with the affairs of the State of Haryana and have not availed facility from their parent State, the State of Punjab and U.T. Administration Chandigarh, would also be eligible for grant of Resident Certificate of the State of Haryana only for the purpose of admission in academic/technical/medical institutions of the State of Haryana. However, in that case the employees of the Punjab & Haryana High Court shall be entitled to draw this benefit at one place/State only. Head of the Department of the Punjab & Haryana High Court would be competent to issue such a certificate.
