Gujarat State is well known for the entrepreneurial skills and business acumen of its people all over the world. Ahmedabad, the biggest city of Gujarat, is a vibrant and prosperous city which excels in every sphere of creative and economic activity, besides being a historical city. This historical city of Ahmedabad was founded on the banks of Sabarmati in the year 1411 A.D. by King Ahmed Shah, after whom the city has been named. The city has a rich and flourishing heritage, cultural vibrancy and modern industries. Ahmedabad is also known for the freedom movement and inspiring leaders such as Mahatma Gandhi and Sardar Patel. It was from the Sabarmati Ashram located here that Mahatma Gandhi launched his famous Dandi March.

The city of Ahmedabad, which was known as the Manchester of East due to its innumerable textile mills, has since diversified into various other sectors such as Information Technology, Pharma sector, etc. The city is fortunate to have a very inspiring intellectual environment through well-known institutions such as the Indian Institute of Management, Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET), National Institute of Design, National Institute of Fashion Technology, Physical Research Laboratory, Ahmedabad Textile Industries Research Association, Institute of Plasma Research, Space Applications Centre etc. These institutions have given an international colour and culture to the city. Among these institutions, Gujarat University also finds a place of pride catering to the higher education needs of the students of Gujarat.

The Gujarat University

The Gujarat University was conceived in the nineteen twenties in the minds of public-spirited and learned men like Gandhiji, Sardar Patel, Acharya Anandshankar B. Dhruva, Dada Saheb Mavlankar, Kasturbhai Lalbhai and many others. However, the University could come into existence only after the achievement of independence in 1949. The University was incorporated under the Gujarat University Act of the State Government as a teaching and affiliating University. This was done as a measure of decentralization and reorganization of University education in the then Province of Mumbai.

During the courses of its life of more than five decades, the University has been the establishment of seven more Universities which were carved out of the jurisdiction of the Gujarat University, viz., Sardar Patel University, Saurashtra University, Bhavnagar University, South Gujarat University, Gujarat Ayurveda University, Gujarat Agricultural University and North Gujarat University. Gujarat University is the largest university in the state catering to the needs of the higher education which is evident from successfully running 350 colleges. In addition to this, the university has to its credit 34 post graduate departments offering more than 150 different Post graduate, diploma and certificate courses.

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) established by the University Grants Commission (UGC) accredited the University with the grade B++. The motto of University is a Sanskrit subhashita from Bhagvad Gita “Yoga Karmsu Kaushalam “, which means “Balance in life is accomplished through proficiency & mastery in work.” It is the largest and biggest University in state comprising of 19 districts and has a radius of 1000 kms.

Gujarat University is an affiliating at Undergraduate level, while it is teaching one at Postgraduate level. Indeed, the responsibility for postgraduate instruction has been statutorily given to the University and accordingly it has evolved a plan of coordinated instruction under the direct control and supervision of the University so as to ensure efficient and diversified instructions.

The University has pioneered in developing curriculum and courses in emerging areas since its inception. Realizing the need of qualified computer professionals, the Gujarat University had initiated Post-Graduate Certificate and Post-Graduate Diploma course in Computer Science and Applications way back in early 70’s and Master of Computer Application in 80’s at Rollwala Computer Centre.
