After this process and after the receipt of medical report from the Medical Board, this Office published Second Provisional Select List cited at reference-2.

2. Whereas, after publishing the Second Provisional Select List, this Office had requested the concerned Commissioners of Police / Inspector Generals of Police to verify the Character & Antecedents, the documents and also the other reservations claimed by the selected candidates. The Commissioners of Police / Inspector Generals of Police after due verifications had sent the verification reports to this Office. In the verification reports it has been found that all the candidates had produced genuine certificates for which validity certificates have been issued by the competent authority except in the case of Sri B. Accordingly, their request has been considered and their selection to the post of Sub-Inspector of Police (Civil) (Men & Women) has been rejected and cancelled vide this Office Order of even number dated: 18.9.2015.

5. Whereas, candidate namely Sri Shekar Naik S selected for the post of Armed Reserve Sub-Inspector under Scheduled Caste (Others) was declared fit by the Medical Board. Later after receiving an anonymous petition, he was again subjected for Medical examination. The Medical Board vide letter dated: 11.9.2015 has sent the medical report furnishing that Sri Shekar Naik S has Defective Colour Vision [Defective – (Red-Green deficiency)]. As per Cadre and Recruitment (Amendment) Rules called “the Karnataka State Police including Ministerial Service (Recruitment) (Amendment) Rules, 2009” Colour Blindness shall be a disqualification.
