YOUR ORIGINAL SIGNATURE AND THAT OF YOUR AGENT/REPRESENTATIVE (where applicable) IS REQUIRED IN PART 10 PRIVACY CONSENT AND DECLARATION

PART 9 – PRIVACY STATEMENT

All personal information collected by Trades Recognition Australia (TRA) is protected by the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act). Schedule 1 of the Privacy Act contains the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs), which prescribe the rules for handling personal information.

The Privacy Act defines ‘personal information’ as:

‘information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- (a) Whether the information or opinion is true or not; and
- (b) Whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not’

Privacy information

Under the APPs, the Department of Industry (Department) is required to have a clearly expressed and up to date policy about the way the Department manages personal information. This policy contains information about how you may access the personal information the Department holds about you, and how you may correct any inaccuracies in that information. We will correct your personal information if it is inaccurate (subject to restrictions on such access/alteration of records under the applicable provisions of any law of the Commonwealth).

It also includes information as to how you may make a complaint about a breach of the APPs, and how the Department will respond to such a complaint.

A copy of the Department’s privacy policy is available on the Department’s website at:

<http://www.industry.gov.au/Pages/PrivacyPolicy.aspx>

More information about the Privacy Act, including a copy of the full text of the APPs, can be obtained from the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner’s website at: www.oaic.gov.au

Collection

TRA collects personal information from applicants for the purposes of:

- Processing applications, verifying evidence provided with applications, and assessing whether an applicant has suitable skills in a nominated occupation;
- Confirming authorisation by an applicant of his or her representative or migration agent, and to provide contact details for that representative or migration agent;
- Allowing you to make a payment of fees to TRA so you can lodge an application;
- Allowing TRA to confirm payment and processing refunds as applicable.
- Conducting investigations and ensuring compliance with relevant laws, awards or standards; and
- Ensuring compliance with the Commonwealth Fraud Control Guidelines (2011).

Personal information collected by the Department will only be used for the purposes outlined above. If TRA is not able to collect your personal information, your application will not be able to proceed.

In the course of assessing your application, TRA may receive unsolicited personal information about you from a third party. If TRA would normally have been able to collect that information or it forms a part of a Commonwealth record, it will be treated in accordance with the APPs. If not, TRA will destroy or de-identify that information.

Disclosure

TRA may give some or all of the information it collects from applicants or third parties to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection, the Migration Review Tribunal, the Australian Federal Police, your employer/s, your supervisor/s, your nominated agent or representative, the organisations that issued your qualifications, TRA approved registered training organisations, agencies providing advice to TRA on qualifications such as UK NARIC, organisations or individuals providing in-country verification services, the Australian Skills Quality Authority, the Reserve Bank of Australia, your banking institution, contractors, the Fair Work Ombudsman and other Australian and state/territory government agencies.

TRA may disclose your personal information to these entities for the reasons that are listed above in the collection section.

As part of the application process, TRA may be required to disclose your personal information to an overseas recipient to verify information in your employment and training claims. Typically, this personal information will be your name and date of birth. These overseas recipients are likely to be located in the country or countries from which you are making your employment or training claims.

Personal information collected by TRA will not be disclosed to any other third parties without your consent, except where authorised or required by law.

Complaints

Please note, applicants are responsible for ensuring the accuracy and validity of all information provided to TRA.

Complaints about breaches of privacy should be referred to:
