

INTERNATIONAL MBA

A world class MBA in 12 months

Picture yourself in Miami, the “Gateway to The Americas”, as part of an elite group of students representing more than 50 countries and 20 professions, completely immersed in international business. If the best way to learn is from experience, what better way to learn about global business than to have the entire world in your classroom?

The International MBA is a full-time one-year graduate-level program comprised of 49 credit hours plus two preparatory courses, consistently ranked among the top international business programs in the U.S. by Business Week and U.S. News & World Report.

Highlights

- US News & World Report recently placed it on the top 25 among all international MBA programs.
- Business Week ranked the Chapman School among the top 15% in the nation.
- The IMBA offers a China Track where students can participate in a semester-long study abroad program and take Chinese courses both during their year at FIU and for approximately one month in China.

Unique Features

Benefits of the IMBA program include:

- A world-class International MBA curriculum that can be completed in 12 months
- A global and multicultural perspective
- Language classes in Spanish, Portuguese, Advanced Business English, and Chinese (Mandarin)
- Personal assistance in securing internships and full-time positions upon graduation
- An opportunity to participate in study-abroad programs and attend university seminars on global business issues
- Frequent interaction with senior executives involved in international business
- Professional development seminars focused on leadership, team-building skills, oral and written presentation skills, and career preparation

Program Format

The IMBA program curriculum is offered in four (4) quarters (Fall, Winter, Spring, and Summer). During the Fall quarter students take fourteen (14) credit hours, during the Winter quarter and Spring quarters, students take sixteen (16) credit-hours each. During the Summer quarter, students take three (3) credit hours to complete their program requirements through an elective course, internship, or study abroad. Classes are held Monday through Friday, usually in two hour blocks (8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., 1:15 p.m. to 3:15 p.m., 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.) as required to complete the coursework for the quarter. The typical week includes about 20 hours in the classroom.

Due to the schedule and nature of the program, students in the IMBA are not allowed to work (on or off campus).
