No.532/BPE/2010

date: 31-05-2010

NOTIFICATION

The State Government in the School Education Department and the West Bengal Board of Primary Education have been considering for sometime a proposal to conduct a Bridge Course for those trainees of erstwhile non-NCTE recognized Primary Teachers' Training Institutes (PTTI) who had either completed their training course through such institutions in 2004-05 and successfully completed the final examination for that year and those trainees who had been admitted to such courses in 2005-06 and completed the training course but could not complete the final examination due to a pending litigation before the Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta. For this purpose the State Government as well as West Bengal Board of Primary Education had approached Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India as well as National Council For Teacher Education (NCTE) for approval of such a Bridge Course for these PTT trainees whose entire training had been rendered invalid for no fault of their own. After detailed interactions with the State Government both Government of India as well as NCTE has now approved of the proposal for conduct of One Year Bridge Course for these PTT trainees through Open Distance Learning (ODL) Mode subject to the following conditions:

- a) That only those candidates who had passed Higher Secondary Examination (+2) or equivalent with at least 50% marks and
- b) The trainees who had enrolled themselves in the un-recognized PTTIs and successfully completed the training course in 2004-05 or enrolled themselves in such un-recognized PTTIs in 2005-06 and completed the course but could not complete the final examination due to pending litigation will only be eligible for admission to such one year Bridge Course.
- c) That such Bridge Course must be conducted by West Bengal Board of Primary Education only through NCTE-recognized training institutions within the State as per course content finalized by experts from NCTE & the West Bengal Board of Primary Education.

d) The maximum number of candidates who can get themselves enrolled for the proposed Bridge Course in a recognized PTTI will be 100 (one hundred) only.

Now, therefore and as per under instruction from the School Education Department, Government of West Bengal the West Bengal Board of Primary Education hereby notifies that One Year Bridge Course through ODL Mode under Clause 11 of the National Council For Teacher Education (NCTE) Regulations, 2009 will be conducted for Ex-trainees of unrecognized PTTIs in West Bengal subject to following conditions:

a) That the admission to the proposed Bridge Course will be restricted to the Ex- trainees of the Primary Teachers' Training Institutes who had already completed One-Year Primary Teachers' Training Course from unrecognized PTTIs during the Sessions 2004-2005 and 2005-2006 and possess 10 + 2 (Higher Secondary) or equivalent qualification with a minimum of 50% marks.

b) That the trainees of the aforesaid two sessions who are at present not employed in any Primary School affiliated to the West Bengal Board of Primary Education will only be eligible for admission to the proposed Bridge Course subject to fulfilment of conditions at 'a' above.

c) That the Primary Teachers' Training Institutes recognized by National Council For Teacher Education (NCTE) and affiliated to the West Bengal Board of Primary Education will be Study Centers for this programme.

d) That admission to the proposed Bridge Course to the eligible trainees will be fully free including supply of course materials as the conduct of the entire course will be subsidized by the State Government.

e) That a candidate who is admitted to the Bridge Course will be allowed maximum of three chances in succeeding years to appear and pass the Diploma Examination to be conducted by West Bengal Board of Primary Education.

f) That the trainees who had got themselves admitted to the 2005-06 batch in unrecognized PTTIs and completed their course but could not sit for a part of the Final Examination due to litigation will have to sit for the same examination on the same syllabus at a time to be decided by the Board during the pendency of the Bridge Course.

3. All Ex-PTTI trainees eligible as per conditions mentioned above can obtain the application format from all recognized PTTIs in the State on production of original copy of Higher Secondary mark sheet and original copy of admit card / mark sheet for such PTTI students issued by the West Bengal Board of Primary Education. The application format can also be downloaded from the following websites provided that the original Higher Secondary mark sheet and original admit card / mark sheet for PTT Course issued by the West Bengal Board of Primary Education are produced at the time of submission of filled in application forms to the recognized PTTIs. The application forms will be distributed from all NCTE-recognized PTTIs in the State during normal working hours from 14th June 2010 to 25 June 2010. The last date for submission of duly filled in application form with all required testimonials is 30th June 2010 till 3.00 p.m. The filled in forms are to be submitted to the same PTTIs from which the forms have been issued.

4. Application Forms filled by the candidates and received by the PTTIs are to be submitted to the West Bengal Board of Primary Education within 3 (three) days from the last date of submission of applications. The West Bengal Board of Primary Education in consultation with the concerned District Primary School Councils will finalize the Institutions and District-wise list of admission. If the number of candidates in an Institute exceeds the maximum limit of one hundred then the West Bengal Board of Primary Education in consultation with Chairperson, District Primary School Council will prepare batch-wise list of candidates for admission in different academic sessions, i.e. 2010-11, 2011-12 and 2012-13. The batches will be fixed based on the following criteria:

a. Students who were admitted to erstwhile PTTIs earlier, i.e. in the session 2004-05 will be given preference.

b. Among the PTTI trainees for the individual sessions 2004-05 & 2005-06, seniority of age will be given preference.

5. All particulars including course details and other relevant information have been given along with the application form. No charge is required to be paid to the PTTIs for collection of the application form. Abridged newspaper advertisement is being issued for information to all concerned.
