INTRODUCTION

The Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) programme is offered by the University of Delhi at four institutions:

1. Faculty of Education (Central Institute of Education - CIE)
2. Lady Irwin College (LIC)*
3. Maharshi Valmiki College of Education (MVCE)
4. Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for women (SPMC)*

*Lady Irwin College (LIC) and Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women are exclusively for women. Only women candidates can apply to LIC and SPMC.

Faculty of Education (Central Institute of Education - CIE) and Maharshi Valmiki College of Education (MVCE) are co-educational institutions.

Faculty of Education (Central Institute of Education - CIE)

The Faculty of Education, University of Delhi, also known as Central Institute of Education (CIE), is one of the first major institutions of professional learning and research in Education that was established immediately after independence. The first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and the first Education Minister, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, took considerable interest in the establishment of this institution in 1947 and its progress in its early years. Maulana Azad visualized the function of CIE not merely to 'turn out teachers who will be 'model teachers', but to evolve into a research centre for solving new educational problems of the country'. Over the past few decades, CIE has grown into a pace-setting institution in teacher education and research in education. Recognized as the Institute of Advance Studies in Education (IASE) and having launched the Maulana Azad Centre for Elementary and Social Education (MACESE), CIE has shaped its unique philosophy which finds reflection in all its academic programmes.

The Faculty of Education offers various academic and professional programmes:

- A full-time professional teacher education programme of the duration of two academic years, after graduate or post-graduate studies, leading to a Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) Degree. This programme is offered, at present, at Department of Education (CIE), 33 Chhatra Marg, University of Delhi, Delhi-110007, Lady Irwin College (LIC), Sikandra Road, New Delhi-110001, Maharshi Valmiki College of Education (MVCE), Geeta Colony, Delhi-110031 and Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women (SPMC), West Punjabi Bagh, New Delhi-110026.
- A full-time professional teacher education programme of the duration of two academic years, after graduate or post-graduate studies, leading to a Bachelor of Education (Special Education- Mental Retardation) degree. This B.Ed.-M.R. programme is offered, at present, at Lady Irwin College (LIC), Sikandra Road, New Delhi-110001.

- A full-time professional teacher education programme of the duration of two academic years, after graduate or post-graduate studies, leading to a Bachelor of Education (Special Education- Visual Impairment) degree. This B.Ed.-V.I. programme is offered, at present, at Durgabai Deshmukh College of Special Education, c/o Blind Relief Association, Lal Bahadur Shastri Marg, New Delhi- 110003.
- A full-time professional programme of four years, after 12 years of schooling, in elementary teacher education, leading to a Bachelor of Elementary Education (B.El.Ed.) Degree. This programme is offered at eight affiliated colleges of the University of Delhi.
- A full-time advanced programme in Education, of the duration of two academic years, leading to a Master of Education (M.Ed.) Degree.
- A full-time pre-doctoral research programme of eighteen months and a part-time programme for a duration of twenty four months for teachers and other educational practitioners, leading to the degree of Master of Philosophy - M.Phil. (Education).
- A doctoral research programme leading to Doctor of Philosophy - Ph.D. (Education).
- In-service programmes for teachers and other educational practitioners are also offered by CIE.

The nearest station to reach CIE is Vishwavidyalaya on the Yellow Line of the Delhi Metro.

Lady Irwin College (LIC)

Lady Irwin College is a constituent college for women, in University of Delhi. It was established under the patronage of Lady Dorothy Irwin, by men and women concerned with national issues and the education of women. Among them were the Maharanis of Baroda and Bhopal, Sarojini Naidu, Rajkumari Amrit Kaur, Annie Besant, Kamala Devi Chattopadhyay, Margaret Cousins and Sir Ganga Ram Kaula to name a few. The college has been a template for over 200 colleges and schools offering the discipline of Home Science in India and neighbouring countries, providing guidance in development of curricula, programmes and infrastructure. Lady Irwin College is celebrating 85 glorious years this year.

Over the years, the college has added bachelors', masters' and doctoral degrees in the field of Home Science. It also provides facilities for community outreach programmes, inter-college and international exchanges and networking, workshops and seminars, public events, sports and recreation. Since its inception, the staff and students of the college provide research advice and community extension services in nutrition, resource management, human development, and textiles and clothing.

It has been offering B.Ed. for students of Home Science since 1952, and B.Ed. Special Education (MR), for students from all streams since 2007.

The college has a prestigious program 'The Raj Kumari Amrit Kaur Child Study Center' that houses Play school, Crèche, Early intervention center in disabilities and day care. It is a true example of inclusive education from formative years which provides an excellent opportunity for observations for the students of the Department of Education.

The buildings of the college have been classified and protected as heritage sites. The college has well equipped laboratories and classrooms and library with about 55,000 books and periodicals. The campus is wi-fi enabled and covered with CCTV surveillance.

The Lady Irwin College Hostel is well equipped with modern facilities and can accommodate about 200 students from undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programmes.

The nearest station to reach LIC is Mandi House on the Blue Line of the Delhi Metro.

Maharshi Valmiki College of Education (MVCE)

(Accredited by NAAC with A grade)

Maharshi Valmiki College of Education was established in the year 1995 by the Govt of NCT of Delhi as a Constituent College of University of Delhi to cater to the long standing need for providing avenues for pre-service elementary and secondary teacher education programmes for the aspiring students in Delhi. Initially known as College of Education, the college assumed its present name Maharshi Valmiki College of Education in the year 1997 drawing inspiration from the ideals of the great teacher Valmiki.

Marking a humble beginning with its Bachelor of Education programme with only 38 students from the Humanities and Social Science categories in 1995, the college got initiated into the process of shaping its promising profile under the inspirational leadership of the philosopher, artist and teacher late Professor R.P. Sharma, Former Head & Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Delhi, who took over as its Founder Principal (Officer on Special Duty) on 21 September 1995. The college was formally inaugurated by Shri Madan Lal Khurana, the then Chief Minister of Delhi on 16 November 1995.

With a team of committed teachers on its faculty, the college presently has all the facilities needed for imparting quality teacher education programme. A well established library with adequate space and more than 7500 titles committed to education; equally well established physics, chemistry, biology, psychology and computer laboratories; resource centre with good facilities; and adequate space for all other indoor and outdoor needs are available in the college. The college has been very seriously focussing on instilling quality and bringing diversity in the scope of its pre-service teacher education programme.

The nearest stations to reach MVCE are Shastri Park on the Red Line and Laxmi Nagar on the Blue Line of the Delhi Metro.

Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women (SPMC)

Shyama Prasad Mukherji College strives for developing an all-round personality of all the students. The aim of the college is to facilitate positive thinking and courage of conviction in women to enable them to take on the different challenges of the modern world. This is a multidisciplinary college established in 1969. The college has a spacious building with sprawling lawn and play grounds and boasts of state of the art infrastructure. It has a well-stocked library with an enviable collection of books and journals. There is a fully air conditioned auditorium with a seating capacity of 1200. Along with these, it has a medical room, a canteen and two fully equipped computer laboratories. Shyama Prasad Mukherji College has a Family Counselling Centre which provides counselling, referral and rehabilitation services to students to help them develop better coping skills. Every year, a highly active Students' Union organizes various cultural festivals like Srijan. Prizes and Scholarships are awarded to meritorious and outstanding students on the basis of the examination results and their all-round performance. Shyama Prasad Mukherji College is the only college in Delhi University that runs both B.El.Ed. and B.Ed. courses under the guidance of highly qualified and competent faculty with visiting faculty and resource persons from India and abroad. An annual seminar is conducted every year inviting paper presentations on themes that necessitate meaningful dialogue among academicians, research scholars, faculty members and student teachers related to issues and challenges of education and learning.

The nearest station to reach SPMC is Shivaji Park on the Green Line of the Delhi Metro.

The same medium should be used by a candidate for all the examinations.

HOSTEL ACCOMMODATION: There are two small dormitory-type hostels in CIE, separately for men and women. The application for a seat in the hostel should be submitted immediately after admission. At present, MVCE and SPMC have no hostel facility; but the students admitted there can apply for admission to the CIE Hostels. LIC also has hostel facilities for their students.

Caution: If after verification, it is found that the information or certificate(s) produced is/are false, criminal proceedings will be initiated against the concerned person in addition to the cancellation of admission of the candidate and forfeiture of the tuition fees etc.

Disputes, if any, arising out of or relating to any matter whatsoever, concerning the process of admission shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent court in Delhi only.
