The end of 2011 and the beginning of 2012 were marked by a sluggish economy and a slowdown in hiring across most industries. Despite these obstacles, IMI was able to conduct a largely successful final placement season. IMI's HR team was on campus to hire a batch of 152. 115 of these students were from the PGDM program and 37 were from PGDHRM, IMI's dedicated HR program.

Padma-Shri Dr. Pritam Singh, Director General -IMI

PGDM Placements

A large chunk of the PGDM placements were in BFSI, Banking, Wealth Management, Asset Management, Insurance, Laborator

The next highest recruitment was in the consulting space. Regular recruiters like AT Kearney, Ernst & Young GSS, Infosys Technologies and Axis Risk Consulting continued their lead in IMI despite the general gloom in the economy.

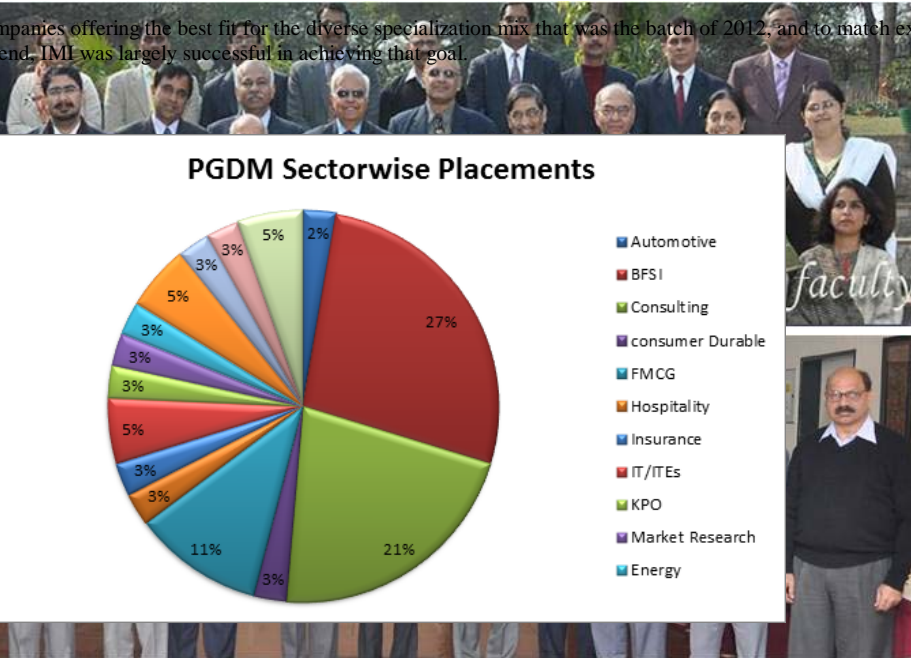

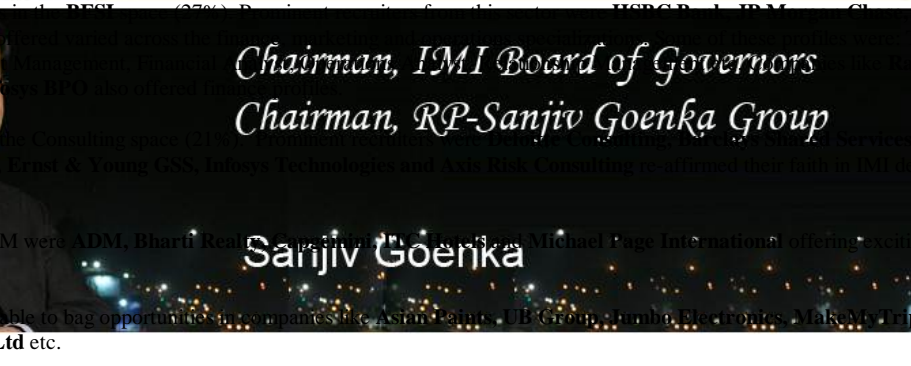

Among first-time recruiters for PGDM were ADM, Bharti Realty Holdings Ltd., Michael Page International offering exciting profiles to students across specializations.

The budding managers of IMI were able to bag opportunities at companies like Asian Paints, UB Group, Jumbo Electronics, MakeMyTrip, Maruti Suzuki India Ltd, Ruchi Soya Industries Ltd etc.

The goal was to have a basket of companies offering the best fit for the diverse specialization mix that was the batch of 2012, and to match expectations regarding role as well as compensation. In the end, IMI was largely successful in achieving that goal.
