Table notes

Although the headline ranking figures show the changes in the survey year to year, the pattern of clustering among the schools is also significant. A total of 197 points separate the top school from the school at number 100 in the ranking. The top 10 schools, from Stanford GSB to Hong Kong UST Business School, form the leading group of world-class business schools. A total of 63 points separate Stanford from HKUST. The second group is headed by the Indian Institute of Management, - Ahmedabad, which scored 68 points more than SDA Bocconi, leader of the third group. The fourth group, which includes schools ranked from 72nd to 100th, is headed by University of Minnesota: Carlson.
