13. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

You acknowledge and agree as follows:

- a. You will pay the non refundable application fee directly to AIB via the AIB website when submitting this Student Application Form. AIB will not process this Student Application Form until this is done.
- b. By completing and submitting this Student Application Form to AIB you are inviting AIB to offer you a place in the relevant Course. You agree that if AIB issues you with a letter of acceptance (which is entirely at AIB's discretion) this will be an offer which is capable of your acceptance by enrolling (ie nominating and paying for) in subjects with AIB by the cut off date.
- c. A letter of acceptance/offer issued by the TC, an agent or any other party is not valid, and you shall immediately inform AIB if you have received such a letter.
- d. Before enrolling, you agree to obtain a copy of the AIB Student Handbook and carefully read all sections. Also, before enrolling you agree to review AIB's fees in the Course fees webpage (in the AIB website).
- e. By enrolling, you are taken to have accepted the offer in the letter of acceptance and are deemed to have read, accepted and agreed to abide by the terms and conditions in this Student Application Form, the Course Information, and the rules and regulations in the AIB Student Handbook (as amended from time to time).
- f. You shall pay all AIB fees directly to AIB (not to the TC to then pay to AIB) as directed in the AIB website. You will also need to arrange payment of tuition fees directly to the TC, who will be delivering our Course to you – AIB is not responsible for any amounts paid to the TC. You acknowledge and agree that AIB's fees may change from time to time and the new fees will apply to all students notwithstanding when they joined the Course.
- g. Any amounts paid by you to AIB shall not be assignable or transferable towards the credit or benefit of another student or for any other matter (subject to the fees in credit policy detailed in the AIB Student Handbook).
- h. AIB is not obliged to and will not refund to you any fees paid or caused to be paid to AIB or the TC in relation in the Course or otherwise. The TC may have a separate refund policy with you but this does not require AIB to refund any amounts paid or caused to have been paid by you.
- i. Upon your first enrolment with AIB, you will be considered a distance learning examination student of AIB only for the purpose of sitting for the examinations for the enrolled subjects. On payment of the tuition fees to the TC, you will be considered a tuition student of the TC for the purpose of attending tutorials delivered by the TC.
- j. You acknowledge that if you do not correctly enrol in (ie nominate and pay for) subjects by the relevant enrolment dates, you are not entitled to attend tutorials for those subjects or submit assignments or sit exams for those subjects. If you do submit assignments or sit exams when not correctly enrolled, AIB will not mark these papers and will discard them.
- k. AIB reserves the right to modify, alter or withdraw any subjects or any Course and/or to make modifications to the Course delivery and tutorial or exam schedule or assessments without prior notice. Some students may be merged into different intakes or be moved from intake to intake, as approved by AIB, so class sizes may vary.
- l. If at any time the TC is no longer permitted to deliver our Course, you will be notified of the alternative centre at which you can attend the tutorials on the Course subjects and sit for the examinations. If there is no alternative centre available, you may then be able register as an AIB pure distance learning/on-line student (upon appropriate payment being made to AIB) and sit for the examinations at a location that will be advised to you.
- m. You declare that, to the best of your knowledge, the information provided by you in this Student Application Form (and all documentation attached to, accompanying or sent in relation to this Student Application Form) is true and complete in every particular. You acknowledge that AIB may vary or reverse the decision regarding admission, enrolment or registration made on the basis of any misrepresentations or incorrect or incomplete information provided by you or any breach of the AIB Student Handbook. You consent to the TC and/or AIB making enquiries at any institutions (including but not limited to Universities or colleges) or to any persons to confirm the qualifications that you have obtained and any other details set out in the Student Application Form and you consent to them providing this Student Application Form to those institutions and persons as proof of your consent.
- n. You consent to the appropriate Australian authorities having access to your academic records as part of any audit of AIB in accordance with relevant Australian legislation.
- o. You agree that AIB may use or disclose my information for marketing purposes but only to the extent permitted by the relevant privacy legislation.
- p. You agree that AIB and any related entity is not responsible for any representations that the TC, any agent or any other party has made to you, either verbally or in writing, regarding the Course or AIB or its related entities.
- q. You consent to the TC or any other party providing us with all materials provided to you by the TC, agents or similar parties. You also consent to the TC or any other party providing us with any agreements you have made with the TC, agents or any similar parties.
- r. You have read, understood and agree to the terms and conditions in this Student Application Form.

COURSE INFORMATION

Course content and duration

Information on the Course and the subjects that comprise the Course is listed on the AIB Website. Students who have elective subjects, should check with their TC to ensure that, firstly that their TC is offering these subjects and secondly that doing these subjects will allow them to graduate with their desired award within the desired timeframe. Also, students who have obtained exemptions should ensure that they are undertaking the correct subjects to allow them to graduate with the desired award within the desired timeframe. As stated in section 2.1(d) of the Student Handbook (SH), it is solely the student's responsibility to ensure they undertake the correct subjects so that they will graduate with their desired award within the desired timeframe. If students require any further information, they should request further information from the TC.

Students can take up to 3 years to complete the MBA Course and up to 6 years to complete the BBA Course, however a minimum number of subjects must be undertaken each year – refer to section 2.2(b), (c) and (d) SH.

The AIB MBA can be delivered on a monthly basis over as little as 12 months, but this is dependent on subject availability and timing of public holidays. Also, students may have up to an extra 3 months to finish the final project.

If students fail one or more subjects, they may be entitled to re-sit or re-enrol in the subject, but certain conditions apply and this will increase the duration of their course - refer to the Student Handbook.

If students register to undertake the Course on a stage by stage basis, they will automatically be admitted into the next stage of the Course upon successful completion of all of the relevant assessment requirements and upon the appropriate fees being paid up in full.

Subjects and Courses are changed, added to, withdrawn or modified by AIB from time to time, so they may not always be available for students to undertake at a later date.

Refer to section 1.2 SH for information regarding exemptions.

Fees

Information regarding the Course fees is listed in the Course Fees webpage on the Online Enrolment System (OES) (please note re-sit/re-examination fees also apply for medical or compassionate grounds). Students must review these fees before first enrolling, and thereafter review it from time to time. Please note, AIB may change its fees or introduce additional fees from time to time and these new/revised fees will apply to all students notwithstanding when they joined the Course. AIB does not provide any refunds for any fees paid. AIB has a fees in credit policy for any extra fees paid, or for deferred subjects, or fees paid after cut off dates etc – refer to section 2.6 SH for more information.

All AIB fees must be paid directly to AIB via the Payment Methods spelt out in the AIB Website. Students will pay tuition fees directly to the TC, so students should clarify these fees with the TC before commencing the Course. This arrangement is directly between the students and the TC, regarding which AIB has no involvement or liability. The TC may have a separate refund policy with students (so students should clarify this with the TC before commencing any Course) but this does not require AIB to refund any amounts paid or caused to have been paid by any students.

The fees paid do not include textbooks or any other costs.

Other information

- Extensions for assignments and final projects (including project proposals, first draft and final copy) will normally not be granted except in cases of severe illness or death in the family (for the avoidance of doubt, extensions for work reasons will not be granted).
- Any personal queries can be addressed to students' contact person at their Teaching Centre (or if not resolved then in the Feedback to AIB page in the OES). The AIB Academic team will be monitoring students' progress and TCs shall provide academic counselling should it become necessary. In the event any student has learning difficulties, AIB/TC may refer them to a learning specialist, at their cost.
- AIB has developed policies regarding access, equity, anti-discrimination and other issues. For further information, students should review the relevant policies on the AIB Website.
- If students have grievances about academic matters or non-academic matters, they should refer to the relevant policies on the AIB website.
