12.2.4 For Constitutional reservation category candidates: Ear-Marking - Reserved category candidate entitled to admission on the basis of merit in an open category seat will have the option of taking admission either against his/her respective category seat or on an open category seat. If he/she opts for the reserved category he/she will be deemed to have been admitted as an open category candidate and not as reserved category candidate. One seat in the college where he/she was eligible for admission against open seat shall be earmarked for a candidate belonging to the respective reserved category. Such earmarked seat will be made available immediately to the successive reserved category candidate from the same category merit.

12.2.5 Based on preferences given, the seats will be allotted on merit and the allotment will be displayed on website of DMER i.e. 'www.dmer.org'. All the candidates to whom a seat has been allotted in the 1st round on the basis of Merit-cum-Preference will have to compulsorily join the college and course so allotted, by completing the requisite formalities.

12.2.6 It is made clear that even if a candidate to whom a seat has been allotted in the 1st round wants a betterment of his/her choice, such a candidate must initially accept the allotment and join the college by completing the necessary formalities as set out by these Rules, failing which such a candidate will be thrown out of the entire admission process of the current academic year 2013 - 2014.

If any candidate to whom a seat has been allotted in the 1st round does not join the college and course seat so allotted, it will be presumed that such a candidate is not interested in the admission process and for all further round(s) of admission, such candidate shall not be considered for allotment of any seat whatsoever.

The seat so allotted to such a candidate who does not join, will be presumed to be a vacant seat as on and from the next date after the date set out as the last date for joining the college in terms of such allotment. Such a vacant seat will be allotted in the next round of admission process.

12.2.7 All the candidates who have filled the preference form and to whom a seat could not be allotted in the round will be held eligible for allotment of a seat in the subsequent Round(s).

12.2.8 after the first Preference Form round, Competent Authority may conduct subsequent preference round(s), based on the same preference form.

12.2.9 Cut-off date for the eligibility: The eligibility of the candidate shall be determined and/or decided for all purposes including for applicability of all these Rules and Regulations by considering the last date of submission of Preference Form as the cut off date. It is made abundantly clear that if a candidate is found ineligible as on the last date of submission of preference form, in terms of these Rules and Regulation, and if such an ineligible candidate acquires the requisite eligibility after the aforesaid cutoff date (i.e. the last date of submission of preference form), such subsequent acquisition of eligibility will not make an ineligible candidate eligible for any purpose whatsoever, much less for the purpose of admission.

13. FINAL ROUND BY PERSONAL COUNSELING:

- 13.1 The Competent Authority will issue notification of final round by Personal Counseling in the news papers and on DMER website indicating the schedule of selection process.

There shall be a final round for allotment of seats remaining vacant after completion of the earlier rounds of allotment of seats by way of preference forms. This final round of allotment of seats shall be conducted by way of personal counseling instead of allotment on the basis of preference forms and there will be instant seat allocation.

On account of allotment of seats in this final round of admission, no fresh vacancies consequent upon allotments made in this round will be created. This is principally because this final round of allotment is meant to fill up (as far as possible all) available vacant seats without creating a new or fresh vacant seat on account of such allotment.

At this round, eligible candidates will appear personally (Proxy will not be permitted), seeking allotment of seats of their choice. The personal counseling for such allotment will be held strictly in the order of State Merit List number of NEET PGM-2013. Each candidate will be offered all seats that have remain vacant and are available for allotment as per merit and category, only at the time of his/her turn of counseling i.e. State Merit Position.

- 13.2 Before personal counseling round all available vacant seats (due to non-allotment / non-joining / resigning etc.) will be notified on the website. All the Candidates should carefully go through the vacant seats as notified on website and decide as to whether retain the allotted seat to him/her or to go for Final Personal Counseling round. All the candidates who have joined in the previous round(s), will be given a stipulated period to fill status retention form.

Status Retention: In case if a candidate to whom a seat has been allotted in the preference form round(s) and who has joined the college accordingly, is satisfied with the allotment, such a candidate must submit a Status-Retention Form (Annexure-J) in the given format on or before prescribed date with the Dean of the College where such a seat has been allotted to such a candidate. The Dean of every Medical College to which admissions are so made in terms of these rules, may appoint an appropriate Officer to receive such Status Retention Forms. Upon receipt of such Status Retention Forms, an acknowledgement in writing shall be issued immediately to the concerned candidates to acknowledge the receipt of such a Status Retention Form within the prescribed time. It is mandatory for every such candidate submitting a Status Retention Form to insist for issuance of acknowledgement thereof and to preserve such acknowledgement till the present admission process is finally concluded. In absence of such an acknowledgement, the claim of submission of Status Retention Form within the prescribed time shall not be entertained. Candidate who has submitted status retention forms will not be eligible for personnel counseling round.

It is hereby made clear that the period provided for submission of Status Retention Form is crucial and vital. This period shall not be extended for any reason whatsoever. Submission of the Status Retention Form is an irrevocable and irreversible act for the candidate submitting such Status Retention Form. It is made clear that under no circumstances whatsoever, a candidate will be allowed to submit a Status Retention Form after the aforesaid last date. Under any circumstances whatsoever, a candidate who has submitted a Status Retention Form shall not be allowed to withdraw the same either before or any time after the aforesaid last date. All the candidates therefore, are hereby called upon to carefully consider their case before submission of such a Status Retention Form.

All such candidates to whom seat has been allotted in the earlier round and who have accordingly joined the college if do not submit the 'status retention form' as set out herein will lose the seat so allotted and joined by them. All such candidates will have to compulsorily appear at the 'final personal counseling round' and get an allotment made in their favour in accordance with their relative merit, choice and availability, failing which such candidates will not get any seat whatsoever.

- 13.3 Names of all the candidates who have submitted the Status Retention Form as above within the prescribed time and the seats occupied by them will be removed out of consideration for the remaining admission process.

13.4 Eligibility for the personal counseling round will be as follows:

13.4.1 The following candidates are Eligible for Personal Counseling round

- (a) All NEET PGM-CET-2013 candidates who have listed in state merit list of Maharashtra State & who have filled the preference form and to whom a seat has not been allotted in the previous round(s) of admission.
- (b) All such candidates to whom though a seat was allotted in the previous round(s) and though such candidates joined the college accordingly by completing necessary formalities under these Rules, did not submit the Status Retention Forms as mentioned herein above on or before the date/s prescribed by the Competent Authority.
- (c) All such candidates to whom though a seat was allotted in the All India Postgraduate admission process in a College situated in Maharashtra, but voluntarily surrendered the seat by giving an application before the prescribed date and the said seat is added to the State quota.

- (d) All such candidates to whom a seat is allotted through NEET PGM CET 2013 in the previous round(s) and joined the college, but resigned the seat will be eligible for personal counseling round.

It is made clear that no other candidate shall be held eligible for this round of admission.

13.4.2 Following candidates are Not Eligible for the personal counseling round.

- (a) All NEET PGM - 2013 candidates who have not filled the Preference Form.
- (b) All NEET PGM -2013 candidates to whom seats has been allotted in previous round(s) but have not joined.
- (c) Names of all the candidates to whom a seat has been allotted in the previous round(s) and who have joined the college accordingly and have further submitted Status Retention Forms by the aforesaid prescribed date will be removed out of consideration for the remaining admission process.
- (d) NEET PGM- 2013 candidates who have been allotted a seat through All India Postgraduate quota in Medical Colleges in Maharashtra and joined the College and have not surrendered the seat to the State quota by giving an application before the prescribed date.

13.5 The afore said final rounds of admission shall be conducted by personal counseling. For the purpose of this round, following seats shall be considered as available for admission which will be displayed on the web site before the commencement of Personal Counseling round :-

- (a) All the seats that have remained vacant, if any, at the end of previous admission round(s) on account of non-allotment
- (b) All the seats that were allotted in the previous round(s) but were rendered vacant on account of the candidate to whom such seats were allotted either did not join or resigned or joined but did not fill in Status Retention Forms.
- (c) All such seats that may revert back to the State Government quota from All India Quota for any reason whatsoever;
- (d) All such seats that may become additionally available on any account whatsoever, including but not limited to seats if any additionally recognized by Medical Council of India/MUHS, Nashik or made additionally available on account of any Order that may be passed by the Courts etc.

13.6 In the aforesaid final round of admission by personal counseling, preference forms submitted by all the eligible candidates will not be considered and the same shall be treated to have been cancelled. In other words, this final personal counseling round shall not be conducted on the basis of choices given in preference forms submitted by the candidates.

13.7 On account of allotment of seats in this final round of admission, no fresh vacancies consequent upon allotments made in this round will be created. This is principally because this final round of allotment is meant to fill in (as far as possible all) available vacant seats without creating a new or fresh vacant seat on account of such allotment.

At this round, eligible candidates will appear personally, seeking allotment of seats of their choice. The personal counseling for such allotment will be held strictly in the order of State Merit List. Each candidate will be offered all seats that have remain vacant and are available for allotment only at the time of his / her turn of counseling i.e. NEET State Merit List position.

In this round, allotment shall be made on the basis of choice made on the spot by the candidate at the time of personal appearance counseling.

All the candidates to whom the seats will be allotted in accordance with the choice and available seats at his/her merit position at the time of personal counseling, he/she will be required to join the concerned college and complete all necessary formalities (by submitting all original documents and paying prescribe fees) for taking admission accordingly within the prescribed time.

Allotment of seat once made in this personal counseling round shall not be changed and/or cancelled at any count whatsoever. Therefore, while giving the choice on the spot at the time of this personal counseling round, the candidates must consider the available seats thoroughly and opt for a seat which they must join once allotted.

It is made hereby clear that in case such a candidate does not join the concerned College and/or fails to comply with the necessary formalities of the admission within the prescribed time, such a candidate shall not be eligible for appearing at next two succeeding NEET PGM conducted for grant of admissions to Post-graduate courses in the State of Maharashtra i.e. NEET PGM- 2014 & 2015 and will have to pay Rs. 10,00,000/- as penalty for lapse of Post graduation Medical seat.

14. CONDITIONS TO BE SATISFIED BY CANDIDATE AFTER SELECTION:
